

Teacher Scale A

We are seeking an enthusiastic teacher with a passion for supporting students with Autism and complex learning difficulties for one of our satellite classes . Such an applicant should have some knowledge or willingness to learn the specialist pedagogies to work with students and develop their fundamental communication and social skills. Oaklynn has an embedded coaching culture with strong social justice values, opportunities for professional development and offers teachers autonomy to develop and try out a range of pedagogical approaches and ideas. Robust training programme for new to special education teachers. Beginning teachers most welcome

Completed application form, cover letter and CV with three names of referees to be sent to pilar.romero@oaklynn.school.nz